TORONTO INTERNATIONAL
FILM FESTIVAL 2026

After several years of estrangement, Myriam, a young woman of Muslim culture growing up in Marseille, renews her friendship with Eva, from a Jewish family, during the summer holidays. Together, they experience their youth outside the frameworks imposed on them.

But this carefree summer begins to crack when a crisis disrupts the balance of their social and familial circle, and soon enough, their own destinies.

EMMA DOUCET

by ÉLISE GIRARD

SIDONIE IN JAPAN, 2023 – VENICE DAYS

Emma is nearing forty and leads a quiet life divided between her job, her teenage son and a charitable role as a public writer, which sees her penning love letters on behalf of other people. She's a single mother and she limits herself to an affair with a married man, but an unexpected encounter soon turns her life on its head. Confronted with the passing of time and the many sacrifices she's made, Emma realizes that it's time to write her own love story, for the first time in her life...

ERIC ROHMER, THE SPIRIT OF CHILDHOOD

by PASCALE BOUHÉNIC, NOËL HERPE

Iconic French New Wave director Éric Rohmer is rediscovered in this new documentary, which explores his singular working methods and artistic philosophy. Through carefully selected film excerpts, rare archival interviews, and previously unseen test footage, the film reveals the quiet alchemy at the heart of his cinema.

Rather than offering a conventional biography, it reflects on the subtle interplay between Rohmer's public persona and his private identity. A discreet yet enduring mystery emerges, inviting a renewed understanding of a filmmaker whose work profoundly shaped the history of cinema.
